

Priority Access Referral: Family Violence

You must complete all sections of the form.

When a person who qualifies for public housing is experiencing family violence, they may be eligible for priority access to public housing and be placed on the Priority Access waitlist in chronological order.

Family violence occurs when someone uses abusive behaviour to control or harm a member of their family, or someone they are in an intimate relationship with. Examples of family violence include child abuse, elder abuse, parental abuse or intimate partner abuse.

Family violence includes many different forms of physical and emotional abuse, as well as neglect. It may include a single act of violence, or several acts that form a pattern of abuse. Examples of family violence include, but are not limited to:

- Physical abuse
- Sexual abuse
- Harassment and stalking
- Psychological abuse
- Financial abuse
- Failure to provide the necessities of life

To be granted approval for priority access to public housing under the Family Violence Stream, applicants must provide the following documents to their NSPHA district office:

1. Public Housing Application (completed by the applicant)
2. Priority Access Referral: Family Violence (completed by the applicant and qualified professional)

How to complete this referral

Applicants may be eligible for priority access to public housing under this stream if a qualified professional provides a referral.

To complete the referral:

1. The applicant must complete Section A.
2. A qualified professional from the list below must complete, date and sign Section B.
 - Medical Professional
 - Support Worker through Victim Services
 - Psychologist
 - Counsellor
 - Elder/Community Leader
 - Police Officer/Law Enforcement
 - Transition House Worker

Professional referrals cannot be completed by an applicant's friend, neighbour or relative.

If you or your referring professional have any questions or concerns about qualifying for priority access to public housing due to family violence, please contact your district office by email using the information provided at the end of this referral form.

A good thing to know... If there are any changes to your housing needs after you apply to public housing (for example, if you require an extra bedroom), you should contact your NSPHA district office or use the NSPHA online applicant portal (nspha.ca) to ensure we have your updated information.

Section A: To be completed by the applicant

3. Applicant Acknowledgement – please read carefully

If I am eligible for priority access to public housing, I understand that:

- ☐ I will be placed on waitlists for all properties in my municipality that are suitable based on my household size and housing needs (detailed in Section B.2).
- ☐ Only the number of bedrooms I need, accessibility requirements, and housing needs (Section B.2.) will be considered when determining suitable units for my household. This means that smoking, pets or parking preferences may not be met when I am offered a unit.
- ☐ Priority access applicants must accept the first unit that they are offered. That means if I refuse the first unit offered to me by NSPHA, I will lose my priority access status and be placed on the general public housing waitlist.
- ☐ I understand and agree to the conditions outlined above.

Section B: To be completed by the qualified professional

1. Eligibility Criteria Checklist

- ☐ The applicant is experiencing family violence.

2. Housing Needs

Some priority access applicants may have special housing needs due to their circumstances; examples can include:

- The requirement for multiple exits within the unit
- The inability to live in a certain community or neighbourhood.

Please list below any housing needs required:

- ☐ I understand that placing restrictions on housing options may increase the wait time for public housing.

Section B: To be completed by the qualified professional
